RECONSTRUCTION.

LETTER FROM HON. JOHN A. CAMPBELL TO GEN. LONGSTREET.

NEW ORLEANS, April 5.

GENERAL: I have received your note relative to the conditions on which the Southern States have been placed by the enactment of the military bills, and have considered of the propriety of the expression of some opinion on the subject. My opinion as to the proper course to be adopted by the citizens of the Southern States coincides with yours.

The military bills have become operative, as laws, in ten States. The President, after exhausting his constitutional means of opposition, is now performing his executive duty to enforce their faithful execution.—Ten States are now submissive to a form of government unknown to the Constitution of the United States. The judiciary power of the Union is dependent for its organization and distribution upon Congress. It is quite fair to conclude that no arrangement of the judicial power would be suffered to remain that seriously incommoded the enforcement of these measures. Nor am I able to perceive that the judicial power, under its present organization, is adequate to afford substantial relief in the existing emergency, even if the opinions of the courts were as favorable as might be desired.

I regard it as an inexorable fact that there is no constitutional opposition that can be made to the military bills that will have any other operation than to increase the existing anarchy.

Those military bills afford to the people of the States, with large exceptions, the means of restoring the supremacy of civil order and to terminate the domination of military rule. I may grant that the conditions are harsh and rigorous; that they violate the fundamental laws of the United States; and that they promise for the future much insecurity and instability. But these admissions do not change the aspect of the question as now presented, nor do they lessen the obligations of the people to take the measures open to them that will best promote common weal.

If the "ancient and honorable"—those who have an interest in the permanent welfare of these Southern States—those who are mindful of their honor and would advance their prosperity and happiness—those whom the inspired prophet denominates as "the head," shall abdicate their functions and retire from public concerns in a mood of sullen discontent, what will be the consequence? The consequence will be that "the prophet that teacheth lies," "the demagogue that causeth the people to err," whom the same prophet I am quoting fitly denominates as "the tail," will usurp their functions and will proceed to frame a government to work mischief and to institute misrule and confusion. My counsel therefore is, that the citizens of the State, on whom the burdens and calamities of tais time must fall, those I have first described, shall exercise every right, exercise every faculty, and employ every power that these military bills allow of, with undaunted courage, unwearied in duty, and undisturbed tranquility of soul, to terminate the existing conditions of disorder. I may concede that we have frankly given what the wise and good believe is all that justice and reason require. I may grant that suspicion and jealousy have been indulged without measure, and that the concessions now exacted, if yielded, will not allay these dispositions, and that a fresh train of evils may be the consequence. But a full consideration of this possibility does not affect my opinion.

The Southern States have passed through an ordeal of fire without dishonor or discredit among those whose opinion is valuable.

Large masses of our population have shown a magnanimity, a heroism, a capability for self-sacrifice under the demands of duty that must at some time or another be recognized and rewarded.

A submission to untoward events in the proper spirit does not imply a surrender of these great qualities. Our people need not surrender as those without hope.

We shall not be committed against seeking for ameliorations in our institutions, nor from asserting a right that all disparaging conditions to union be removed.

We may abide our time with confidence "that God will protect us if we be virtuous and wise."

Your friend, JOHN A. CAMPBELL.

General James Longstreet.

According to the new lights of Radicalism, New Jersey needs reconstruction. It is to be regretted that Congress is not in session, in order that Mr. Sumner and his allies could give one of the original thirteen a republican form of government. The Radical members of the legislature who voted against striking out the word white are rebels against Congressional authority.—How unfortunate that the Judiciary Committee is not in session to arraign these bold recusants against the decree of King Caucus. This is flat treason, which must be met not by simply reading out of the party the men who have the audacity to think for themselves, but the punishment meet for traitors. But, then, if these traitors should follow in the wake of their friends from Connecticut, and overthrow the supremacy of the Radicals in that State also, what is to become of "the country," which, in Radical parlance, means the political preferment of those who are treating the Constitution as a dead letter!—National Intelligencer.

PROCLAMATION OF THE GOVERNOR OF MISSISSIPPI.—Governor Humphreys, of Mississippi, has issued a proclamation defining the relations of the State with the military government of the Fourth district, and declaring that the civil authority exists in full force until it is modified or abolished under the powers given by the reconstruction law. He calls upon the people to pay their State taxes, and to obey the civil officers.

Leading conservatives in Washington, according to the correspondent of the Dispatch, are more than ever hopeful within the past day or two of a decided reaction in the political affairs of the North, the cause for that feeling being contained in accounts received from public men at the North and West expressive of a great change in the feelings of the people, which has been brought about by the policy of Congress in its unlimited advancement.—Rich. Dispatch.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologer on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 16, 1867.

RESOURCES OF THE STATE.

At the late session of the Legislature, a very large number of companies were chartered for the development of the agricultural, mining and manufacturing resources of the State. Many of those companies are in the hands of highly intelligent and reliable gentlemen, who will exert themselves to get them in operation at an early day. Nothing but our anomalous political and pecuniary condition can prevent their early operation and the development of the immense wealth which has been hitherto latent and unproductive.

We are glad to know that quite a number of Northern gentlemen have become interested in these enterprises, and that in all parts of the State projects are on foot for the inauguration of new gold, iron and copper mines, cotton and woolen factories, and for wool and vine growing operations. Interests in all these enterprises are bought on favorable terms. Capital is seeking investment in them, and so soon as our political status becomes fixed and stable, the means will no doubt be supplied for their development.

Those persons, therefore, in the State who, from motives of personal and political ambition, are seeking to keep our people divided, and who contribute, by their ill-tempered and violent counsel, to distract and excite the people, who encourage the formation of parties, are doing immense injury to the early settlement of our difficulties. They are interrupting the early execution of those plans for the recuperation of our people and for promoting the prosperity of the State.

We are glad to learn, that the American Mining and Manufacturing Company, which was chartered at the instance of Col. Love, of Jackson, is projecting a very handsome scheme of operations in some of the transmonane Counties. The Company, when fully formed, will own about 150,000 acres of land, well adapted to grazing, mining and manufacturing, and has already made arrangements for the purchase of 20,000 sheep for wool growing and the establishment of a woolen factory. These lands, known as the "Love purchase," are described by Prof. Kerr, the State Geologist, as possessing fine facilities for mining. A gold belt runs through the tract and iron is abundant.

Perhaps, no part of the United States needs more, and is capable of a higher or a more profitable, developement than the Western Counties of North Carolina. All that is needed is capital and the completion of the Rail Road system already projected, to make it one of the most desirable countries of the world. We sincerely hope that the means will be speedily afforded to aid that enterprising population.

"We do not know who recommended the pardon of Gov. Vance. But every culprit on the way to the gallows excites sympathy, and it is easy to obtain names to a paper. No array of names could have justified the President in this act. Governors Vance and Graham and their followers are known to be enemies to the national government."—Standard, Apl. 16.

When the Standard penned the above, it had seen who recommended Gov. Vance's pardon. It had the evidence before it that Messrs. Wilson, Sherman, Ferry, Ross, Yates, Ramsay, Norton, Republican leaders in the Senate, and Messrs. Stevens, Phelps, Marshall, Chandler, Dennison, and other Republican leaders of the House, and Mr. Greely, had signed the petition, and yet the Standard says it is easy to obtain names to a paper, &c. This is a severe reflection upon those gentlemen. It intimates that the respectable names to that paper could be bought or could be led to sympathize with a man who deserved punishment, in violation of duty. "No array of names could have justified this act." That's Holden's opinion. How many decent white or black men, in North Carolina, does he suppose, agree with him? Thank Heaven, there are none. No man, whose soul is not steeped in the bitterness of party gall and lost to every noble impulse, but differs with him.

What Holden affirms of Govs. Vance and Graham, is known to be false. Since the surrender, no two men in the State have set a better example of quiet submission than they—none have more entirely ignored politics than they,—none have been more anxious to promote quiet and harmony. But they don't notice Holden. His name and character is unsavory, and they never think of him, when it is avoidable. That is the milk in the cocoa-nut. Holden may throw his poisoned arrows at them. His purcile, malicious attacks can only harm himself.—Govs. Graham and Vance occupy an elevation which Holden and his minions can never reach. His attempts are as impotent as the barking of the dog at the moon.

"We will cut the combs of all such roosters before the year of our Lord 1868 closes."—Standard.

Long before that time comes, if you don't mend your present course, you will have sunk so far beneath the surface of public contempt, as to be utterly forgotten!

GREELEY, of the Tribune, administers the following cutting rebuke to the unprincipled adventurers of the Holden-Hunnicutt school:

"Far be it from us to advise a campaign of bitterness. We do not propose to influence the negro by exciting in his mind a hatred of his former masters. Nor should we advise any organization antagonistic to those masters. Agitators like Mr. Hunnicutt, in Virginia, may mean well, but their zeal is bitter and offensive. To organize a campaign on the Hunnicutt plan, is to abandon any hope of a permanent Union party in the South."

MEETING IN HILLSBORO'.

The last Hillsboro' Recorder contained the proceedings of a meeting held in Hillsboro' on the 30th. ult., by a portion of the citizens of Orange, which the Standard has re-published and upon which it grows furious against Hon. Josiah Turner, jr., and Gov. Worth. The proceedings are too long for our daily, yet a brief summary may be interesting to our readers. We had heard nothing of the meeting until published in the Recorder, and we presume Gov. Worth has heard nothing of it up to the present moment, having been absent from the city nearly two weeks, on business.

The meeting was held in the Court House. Mr. Thomas Wilson, late of Pennsylvania, presided, and N. P. Hall was appointed Secretary.

Messrs. James Watson, Burrus Cheek and Joseph Reece, whom we take to be bona fide Union men, were appointed a committee to prepare resolutions.

During their absence, Capt. Jno. F. Lyon addressed the meeting, in which he was quite severe upon the Holdenite meeting held in this city.

The committee reported a series of resolutions which were adopted.

The following resolution, which was offered by Col. Wm. McCauley, contains rather the cream of the proceedings:

Resolved, That we protest against W. W. Holden's leading loyal men in any political work or act, because he brought up and educated the Democratic people of North Carolina in the doctrines of peaceable secession, telling them for twenty years they owed their primary allegiance to North Carolina, and not to the United States, and that "secession was an original, pre-existing sovereign right;" Because he signed the ordinance of secession, and publicly pledged the last man and the last dollar to make it good: Because he said the 'war was God's holy cause,' and then deserted the cause; Because in 1861, he said every Union man among us deserved to die a traitor's death; Because he wanted every man from sixteen to sixty put into the Confederate army; "beat the drum, blow the fife," drill them until their legs are limber; if they will not volunteer, drive them in the army," said Holden; Because he wanted the helpless women and children of those men who fled from conscription, turned out of their houses and homes in dead winter and driven from our midst half naked, half starved, and broken-hearted, to seek their husbands and fathers in the Federal lines; Because, in June 1860, he vowed he would never "bow his head to the degrading yoke of black Republican rule;" and then, in the first resolution in his white and black platform, he says: "We this day, with proud satisfaction, unfurl the glorious banner of the Republican party;" Because he said in 1856, using the language of another: "The leaders among our enemies, the Black Republicans, are to my certain knowledge the meanest and most contemptible creatures on earth, excepting only those in the South that are willing to be governed by them;" Because he once said God never intended the black race for freedmen, and now says, in the 4th resolution of his white and black platform, "we exult in the fact that we are a nation of freemen, and that the sun no longer shines upon the brow of a slave;" Because in the white and black platform he talks mournfully over the fate of the late President Lincoln, while the vile sheets of the secession Standard smell of assassination and the blood of the murdered President, for he called him "Abraham the fool, tyrant, usurper," and even inquiringly advertised in his paper (before Booth thought of his foul deed) asking "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln." He espoused and betrayed the cause of the Whigs; he espoused and betrayed the cause of the Democrats; he espoused and betrayed the cause of Secession; he espoused and betrayed the cause of the Union; he espoused and betrayed the cause of the Confederacy; he espoused and betrayed the cause of President Johnson. As Provisional Governor he espoused the cause of the people of North Carolina, truthfully and truly representing them as loyal; when they refused to debase themselves by voting for him, true to his instincts he betrayed, maligned and sought to have them punished. In fine, he should not lead, for his life was one contined series of duplicity, treachery, political crime and iniquity.

Mr. Turner requested Mr. McCauley to withdraw his resolution, or he should move to lay it on the table. It was not his purpose to dignify the late Provisional Governor by the introduction of his name into the meeting in a manner so formal. Peter Parley's history was not more familiar to the people of Orange than the history and political adventures of W. W. Holden.

The resolution was laid on the table."

Upon this resolution Mr. Holden, in the last Standard, remarks:

"Of course we care nothing about the resolution, offered by one McCauley, in relation to ourself. There is not one word of truth in it. It is a rehash of the old slang against us."

"Of course!" If shame could mantle his cheek it would be crimsoned at such a declaration. The resolution is a precise record of his political history. All the constant readers of the Standard for the last twenty years will bear witness to the correctness of the statements of the resolution.

Hon. Josiah Turner, jr., followed in a characteristic speech, in which he winged the Holdenites.

THE TRUE COURSE.

It will be observed, by reference to our telegraphic columns, to-day, that the better class of the colored people of Richmond, disgusted with the incendiary twaddle of Holden's co-laborer, Hunnicut, have invited the counsel of the decent and respectable gentlemen of that City, and have been addressed by some of them. This is as it should be, and we hope to see the excellent example thus set by the colored people of Richmond followed by that class throughout the South. We have been gratified to witness, of late, the strong indications of conservatism, good sense and sobriety of opinion that have been developed among the blacks, generally. The meetings in Florida, in Wytheville, and now in Richmond, have furnished abundant evidence of this fact.

We hope that the sensible and well-disposed colored people in our midst will also invite addresses from those upon whom they can rely,—the good and true men, who are anxious to promote their interests, and who have no mean, selfish and mercenary aims to accomplish by sowing the seeds of discord and agitation.

In the discussion in the Senate on Friday, Senator Ferry announced that he would not vote to reject nominations for important revenue offices on account of the political status of nominees.

HOLDEN'S RECORD.

BEFORE THE WAR.

"It is sufficient for us to say that we hold to the right of secession as an original pre-existing reserved sovereign right. That whenever the constitution is palpably violated by Congress, * * * or whenever that body fails to carry out the plain provisions of that instrument when required to protect Southern rights, the Union is dissolved and that by a sectional majority."—Holden, Jan. 15, 1851.

"Our correspondent expresses the hope that those who are inclined to speak or think ill of Mr. Hedrick, will do so only on clear evidence, and after some examination. We concur with him; we thought we had clear evidence, but, when informed to the contrary, we were prompt to make the correction. That was all we could do. We are not only "inclined to speak ill" of Mr. Hedrick, but we denounce him as an enemy to North Carolina, to the Union of the States, and to the best hopes of man.—We may have aided to magnify him somewhat in the public eye, but that was one of the unavoidable incidents, and not the object. Our object was to rid the University and the State of an avowed Fremont man, and we have succeeded. And we now say, after due consideration, but with no purpose to make any special application of the remark, that no man who is avowedly for J. C. Fremont for President ought to be allowed to breathe the air or to tread the soil of North Carolina."—Holden, Nov. 5, 1856.

"The destinies of this Union hang upon the result of the election on next Tuesday. The contest is between Buchanan and Fremont. If the former be elected the Union is safe, if the latter it is at an end. It would be cowardly and pusillanimous for the South to submit to the election of Fremont."—Holden, Oct. 25, 1856.

DURING THE WAR.

"The end is worth more than all the means." We shall certainly triumph.—THE WICKED AND CRUEL PEOPLE WHO WOULD CONVERT FOUR MILLIONS OF HAPPY LABORERS INTO SAVAGES BY BESTOWING ON THEM PRIVILEGES WHICH PROVIDENCE NEVER INTENDED THEM TO POSSESS, and who would divide our property among themselves and reduce us to slavery, will be foiled and driven back. The God of battles who rules on the earth, as in the armies of Heaven, will continue to fight for us if we are only true to ourselves. Courage, then, all! Let us be united, and patient, and firm, and loyal, and self-sacrificing in every emergency. The "ray of light" will increase until it discloses its source, the sun of victory. Our independence once achieved, North Carolina will be one of the most prosperous States in the world. We shall enjoy ourselves, and leave to our children not only liberty, but all the blessings which toleration in religion, and the industrial pursuits in field and workshop, education, and the arts and sciences, and peaceful commerce with other nations, can bestow upon us."—Holden, July 1, 1862.

"Terms of pardon, based on an oath to support certain acts of the Federal Congress relating to slaves, strike us as strange, and absurd. Terms might be imposed with equal reason based on the support of any other law. This, it seems to us, would be an abuse of the pardoning power, even conceding, as we do not, THAT WE ARE REBELS and asking pardon.

"Again, the assumption that one tenth of the people of a State may shape the action of the State on a question so vital in its character, is opposed to the fundamental principle of the right of a majority to govern, and would, if carried into effect, lead to civil war among ourselves. We tell Mr. Lincoln that the people of North Carolina may be overrun and physically subdued, but their honor and their proud port as freemen they can never sacrifice. They will take no oaths which their State, in Convention assembled, does not require them to take; and whatever may happen, North Carolina will act as a State, by a majority of her people, and thus shape her own destiny. Her people would not rally around a tenth to do anything. North Carolina may be forced to walk through the valley of humiliation, but she could not dirt in her own proud integrity, with her garments unstained save by the blood of those who, presuming on their physical might, would DISHONOR AND DEGRADE HER."—Holden, Dec. 1, 1863.

AFTER THE WAR.

"WE TRIED TO SAVE SLAVERY, but the secessionists wouldn't let us."—Holden, 1865.

"CONSPICUOUS UNION LANDMARKS."

"6. Unqualified opposition to what is known as negro suffrage."

PROFESSION.

"With malice towards none; with charity to all."—Holden's Proclamation as Provisional Governor.

PROOF.

"RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 8, 1865.

To Gov. W. G. Brownlow:

SIR:—Duncan K. McRae, an unpardoned rebel, is in Memphis, practicing law. He is rebellious, and has been interfering in the elections in this State. Please do me the favor to forbid him from practicing law in the Courts of Tennessee. As an unpardoned rebel, he has no right.

Very respectfully,
W. W. HOLDEN,
Prov. Gov."

"Have you read Mr. Pool's Address?"—No! and we presume no one has, that has any other employment. We judge it is rather a drug. The Standard published quite an edition of them, and is in an agony to sell them. Two or three times in the same paper it asks the above question. The people want truth—truth! They will buy the truth, but not Mr. Pool's address.

THE APPROPRIATION FOR THE DESTITUTE OF THE SOUTH.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says:

The Secretary of War has ordered the Paymaster General to disburse the amount of $500,000, which was appropriated by the joint resolution of Congress, approved March 30, 1867, under such rules as might be prescribed. The Paymaster General has therefore issued a circular regulating the disbursements for expenses incurred under the reconstruction act, and made the following detail and assignment:

District I, Headquarters, Richmond, Va., T. H. Stanton, paymaster; District II, Columbia, S. C., J. W. Nichols, paymaster; III, Atlanta, Ga., E. D. Judd, paymaster; IV, Vicksburg, Miss., P. P. G. Hall, paymaster; V, New Orleans, La., Nicholas Vedder, paymaster.

General Schofield has informed a member of the Virginia House of Delegates that the disqualification to vote or hold office does not apply under the reconstruction bill to persons who were forced into the rebel service by conscription, notwithstanding that they had taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and served in any of the capacities enumerated in the prescribed form of oath.

BRAZILIAN EMIGRATION.

The able and interesting letters of our correspondent "W" have excited a very general interest on the subject of Brazil. For the benefit of those who desire further information, we publish the following circular of Maj. L. W. Hastings, of Mobile, from the Tribune of that city. The Tribune says that Maj. H "is an old explorer and scientific traveller, having been the first man to carry a train of colonists across the plains to Oregon."

CIRCULAR TO BRAZILIAN EMIGRANTS.

The undersigned having just returned from Brazil, where he has been for the last six months, during which time he has travelled more than ten thousand miles in that Empire, where he obtained and located a grant of nine hundred square miles of land, inferior to none in any part of the world. This tract is situated at the mouth of the Tapajos river, a tributary of the Amazon, bordering upon both the Amazon and Tapajos, on the south side of those rivers, 500 miles from the coast. Emigrants with families, each receive one square mile, and those without families one half that quantity, at 22 cents per acre, payable in five years from the time of settlement. By virtue of a special contract, a large Government force is now engaged in sectionizing these lands for the incoming emigrants, building houses for their reception, and making roads for their accommodation; besides which, the government, by the terms of said contract, pays for the transportation of all those who have not the means to defray their own expenses from the place of embarkation to their destination, the amount so expended to be refunded to the Government within three years.

The first expedition, under this arrangement, accompanied by the undersigned, will leave for the Amazon so soon as two hundred names are registered. Those desiring to register their names, and thus secure passage on the first vessel, can do so by applying to the undersigned, at No. 53 Government street, in this city. Due notice of the exact time and place of embarkation will be given, through the press and by mail, to those whose names are registered. Transportation is furnished for none, under this arrangement, but those whose names are duly registered.

L. WARREN HASTINGS.

Mobile, April 5, 1867.

A CURIOUS AFFAIR.—A curious little affair took place up town recently. It seems that a gentleman, well known in society, gave a large dinner party, to which he invited both ladies and gentlemen. The dinner was served in the most elegant style, the table cloth, we are told, being of white velvet, and the china, glass and silver of the most magnificent description.

Soup was served, then fish, and just as the waiters were preparing to bring on the third course, and while the host was relating a very interesting story, in which he was the hero—the folding doors were suddenly thrown open, a man walked in, and advancing to the host, laid his hand on his shoulder, and said, in a voice loud enough for all to hear, "I am the sheriff, sir, and have a warrant for your arrest." We pause here, and leave our readers to imagine the scene which ensued.—N. Y. Correspondence Philadelphia Inquirer, April 10.

AFFAIRS IN VIRGINIA.—The news from Virginia to-night is not particularly interesting. The Legislative recess having expired, a large number of members arrived in Richmond to-day, but not sufficient for a quorum. It is said that they have been thoroughly reconstructed in ideas—the association with their constituents having produced a political reform in that way.—It is stated that a prominent judge in the State, who does not bet, would be willing to stake something that Petersburg would be carried by six hundred majority for the Radicals, and Richmond by fifteen hundred, in the first election. These views are, however, not concurred in, and I think are mistaken. The negro vote in Virginia will be decidedly Democratic.—New York Herald.

COLORED BARBER NEARLY ELECTED MAYOR.—A special election for Mayor took place this afternoon. The candidates were the present incumbent, Hon. John Abbot, Republican, Charles H. Proctor, a respectable colored barber, for a citizens' reform ticket, and Dr. Goodwin, the temperance nominee. Returns have been received from all the wards but Fisherville, which gave Abbott 554, Proctor 345, Goodwin 67, and scattering 48. At 3 o'clock it was reported that Proctor had the lead, which caused considerable excitement. The Abbott men immediately rallied, and the election of their candidate was made sure. Proctor's vote came mainly from the Democrats.—Concord, N. H., Dispatch to the Boston Journal.

REMOVAL FROM OFFICE.—Two members of the city police were removed from the force on yesterday, in obedience to an order issued from Headquarters District No. 2, requiring that action on the part of the local authorities of this city. The parties removed were Sergt. Aldritch and Private Cowan, lately concerned in the Sweeny-Malarky stabbing affair, and it is but justice to the parties to state that this action was taken without any trial of the case before even a military tribunal.—Wilmington Dispatch, 15th.

MARYLAND ELECTIONS.—Returns of the Maryland election of Wednesday last, so far received, foot up a majority of 8,200 "for Convention." The majority, it is supposed, will be increased by St. Mary's, Charles and Calvert counties.

The Convention will be held on the second Wednesday in May, for the purpose of amending the State Constitution.

DESTROYING LIBERTY.—Mr. Doolittle, in the course of debate in the Senate, on Friday, said the Republican party had entered upon a policy destructive to the Constitution, and if not arrested will destroy our liberties. What they had seen in Connecticut, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, New York, and everywhere where elections had taken place, goes to show that the people are dissatisfied with the reconstruction policy crowded on the country by the party in power.

The Democrats of Springfield, Illinois, elected on Tuesday last their candidates for Mayor and other city officers, by majorities varying from 300 to 260, thus redeeming the city from Republican rule. To quote from a dispatch from that city, "the capital of Illinois greets Connecticut."

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

To Advertisers.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

New Advertisements.—See Court notice from Hertford County.

The Messrs. Tucker announce new and attractive arrivals daily.

Towles announces a fresh importation of Fertilizers, Family Flour, &c.

Furniture sale by Towles, to-morrow.

Jenkins & Perry, Fayetteville Street, have on hand a nice lot of oranges, lemons, apples, butter, crackers, &c.

Messrs. Atkinson & Shepperson, of Wilmington, propose to pay a premium of $50 for the largest yield of cotton, raised in New Hanover this season, from ten acres of land; and a like amount on the largest yield of ground-peas, raised in the county, on the same quantity of land.

Mayor's Court.—Henry Laton, lodged in the guard house for intoxication on the street. Fined $2.

J. M. Bryant, colored, for discharging fire arms in the street about 11 o'clock at night. Fined $10.

A Mistake.—A local of the Progress, two weeks ago, stated that, in a case before Judge Barnes, at the Superior Court, in which a colored person or persons were concerned, a colored man was denied the privilege of testifying. The next day, however the Progress, discovering its mistake, corrected it. Some of the papers, which copied the first notice, failed to copy the correction, and the first rumor having reached General Sickles, we learn that he has, very properly, ordered an investigation into the case. The investigation will no doubt satisfy all parties that it was a mistake, and that Judge Barnes fully complied with the letter and spirit of the law, both State and National.

We are confident that no instance has occurred with our Judiciary, in which they have, in the slightest degree, departed from or construed the law to the prejudice of the colored people. So far from it, where the law has allowed such a construction, they have always given the colored people the benefit of it.

The Grand Charitable Concert.—Messrs. L. T. Palmer & Co. have issued an address to the public, in which they say that, "in consequence of late persecutions, we are compelled to postpone the grand charitable Presentation Concert to the 17th day of June, 1867." They add:

"This will give us ample time to dispose of all the tickets, and it will afford the public an opportunity to investigate the facts which we have published, thus gaining that confidence which is necessary to ensure the success of every public measure.

We do not wish these statements to be taken unsubstantiated, as we cordially invite an investigation of the enterprize. The grand jury of this city presented us, and we hoped that they would go further and indict us, for we wished to prove to the world our honesty and disinterestedness in this measure, which could not be better done than in an investigation by the grand inquest.

It now remains with the public whether the "Home and School" shall be built.—Whether the poor, fatherless children of the South, whose parents' blood was shed in defence of Southern homes, shall be deprived of the blessings which this enterprize seeks to obtain for them. Must we appeal in vain? No, it shall not be said that the Southern people were so ungenerous as to condemn those who are seeking to benefit the children of the soldiers who died for them, upon the evidence of men who, when they saw their own mercenary aims frustrated, sought to cover their guilt by bringing charges on us. Charges which, in the only trial that was allowed us, were proved to be as false as perjury could make them."

We observe that the sale of tickets has been resumed in Norfolk, Petersburg and Richmond. We presume that Mr. Bragg, the agent, will also resume the sale in this City, as the statement of Messrs. Palmer & Co. is regarded as satisfactory.

Glass Front.—Our enterprising townsman, Dr. Benbow, is making an extensive addition to his present building, which, when finished, will be the most handsome business house in the town, it being in a more modern style of architecture, with glass front. We are inclined to hope Greensboro is not yet "finished," in any sense of the term—and especially that much employment may yet be found within its limits for carpenters and masons.—Greensboro Patriot.

Another Good Indication.—In a letter from Senator Ferry, of Connecticut, upon the lesson to be learned from the result of the late elections in his State, he says emphatically that "the southern communities will accept the terms of the reconstruction act, and will be represented in the Fortieth Congress"—that is, the present Congress. We like such declarations. They indicate that the Northern people have become weary under disunion.

BISMARCK AND NAPOLEON.

The New York Tribune, after briefly rehearsing the more prominent events in the bold and dazzling policy of Count Bismarck, says nothing in his brilliant career has so surprised the world as his recent note to Louis Napoleon. To call upon the Emperor of France, in peremptory language, for an explanation of his armaments, and for their immediate cessation, and to notify him that he will be held responsible for all the consequences, is, says the Tribune, an unreserved challenge to France for the leadership in the politics of Continental Europe. Thus far Napoleon has in every great European complication assumed the air of being the honorary head of the European State system, and the arbiter of all European conflicts. He deemed it his business to interfere in the Crimean war in behalf of Turkey, and, in 1859, in behalf of Italy. He called a European Congress on the Schleswig-Holstein question, accepted from Austria the cession of Venetia in order to transfer it to Italy, and insisted on the establishment of the main frontier. Though not loved or esteemed by other monarchs, he made himself feared. His partisans of late have had some difficulty in explaining his failure in Mexico, and on the German question. Will they be able to concoct any explanation if Napoleon conforms to the humiliating orders of Bismarck? Napoleon has publicly declared the possession of Luxemburg to be indispensably necessary for France; he has extorted from the Dutch Government the promise to sell it; he has refused to release Holland from this promise when she desired to take it back; he has begun to arm in order to enforce his demands. Now Prussia requires him not only to abandon all expectations of annexation, but to give an explanation of his armaments, and to cease them immediately. Will it be possible for the Emperor to comply with these orders, directly or indirectly, without suffering in reputation more than he has suffered by any previous act of his Government?

Napoleon, and with him France, must chafe under the Prussian note. But will the Emperor dare to take up the gauntlet? He knows that Prussia is fully prepared for war, and that France is not; that the combined armies of North and South Germany, which as soon as war is declared are under the chief command of the King of Prussia, number about 1,300,000 men, and that France has to oppose them no more than 750,000 men. Nor is this all. France is without allies. Belgium has refused the offered alliance; Holland wishes to be excused from it, and Switzerland has not replied. England cannot be expected to abandon her obstinate neutrality. Italy will not march against Prussia, to whom she owes Venice, for the sake of the self-constituted protector of Rome. Austria has not forgotten Lombardy, and Russia still smarts under the remembrance of Sebastopol. It is quite different with Prussia. Her relations with Russia are known to be intimate, and even leading papers of Vienna have recently urged the conclusion of an offensive and defensive alliance between Austria and Prussia. The publication of the secret treaties with Bavaria, Wurtemberg, and Baden, as well as significant hints of the statesmen and official organs of Berlin, Petersburg, and Vienna, naturally give rise to the surmise that secret treaties between the three Cabinets may have been concluded many months ago. It would, therefore, seem as though the Emperor of France found himself in a more embarrassed situation than he has ever been in before since the establishment of the Empire. We shall know in a few days in what manner he will try to extricate himself.—Rich. Whig.

Tuesday Morning Dispatches.

THE INJUNCTION CASES IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, April 15, P. M.

In the Supreme Court, to-day, Chief Justice Chase delivered the opinion in the case of the State of Mississippi against President Johnson and General Ord, on the motion for leave to file the bill restraining them from the execution of the reconstruction act. The Court dissented from the argument of the counsel, that the President is required merely to perform a ministerial act, and held that the terms, "ministerial" and "executive," are by no means equivalent in import. A ministerial duty, the "performance of which in proper cases may be required of the head of a department by judiciary process, is one in respect to which nothing is left to discretion. On the other hand, it is the duty of the President to see that the laws are faithfully executed. And among these laws are the reconstruction acts. An attempt on the part of the judicial department, to enjoin the performance of such duties by the President, might justly be characterized, in the language of Chief Justice Marshall, as "an absurd and excessive extravagance."

Congress is the Legislative department of the Government. The President is the Executive Department. Neither can be restrained in its action by the Judicial Department. Though the acts of both, when performed, are in proper cases subject to its cognizance.

The court proceeded to show the impropriety of such interference by considering the probable consequences, and concluded as follows: "It has been suggested that the bill contains a prayer that, if the relief sought cannot be held against Andrew Johnson, as President, it may be granted against him, as a citizen of Tennessee. But it is plain that relief against the execution of an act of Congress by Andrew Johnson, is relief against its execution by the President. A bill praying for an injunction against the execution of an act of Congress, by the incumbent of the Presidential office, cannot be received, whether it describes him as President or simply as a citizen of a State." The motion for leave is therefore declined. In the case of the State of Georgia, against certain officers, the Attorney General makes no objection to the filing of the bill. And we will therefore grant leave to file that bill."

Judge Sharkey said that the objection to the bill be attempted to file, seemed to be to the effort to enjoin the President. The bill was not filed and he could reform it to suit the views of the court, and present it again.

The Chief Justice replied that leave to file the motion is refused. When the other bill is presented it will be considered.

Judge Sharkey said, "I understood the court to say that the application can be made on Thursday."

The Chief Justice replied "on Thursday."

Thus ended, for the present, the proceedings in the court.

Subsequently, a subpœna was ordered to be issued against General Pope, commanding in Georgia.

According to the rule of the court, process is to be issued on the defendant sixty days before the return day of the process.

As the court will adjourn in May, the return day in this case cannot be until next December.

LARGE NEGRO MEETING IN RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, April 15, P. M.

To-day, the negroes commemorated the anniversary of Lincoln's death. Two thousand met at the grove in the edge of the city. They were addressed by two whites and several colored speakers. One of the whites made a radical speech cautioning them to beware of the political designs of the whites, and insist upon equality before the law, and in the schools.

One of the colored speakers made a conservative speech, said he was raised at the South, these were his people and he wanted to be at peace with them.

At night, the meeting convened at the theatre, which was densely packed, to hear addresses by K. T. Dowell, City Attorney, Wm. H. McFarland, President of the Council, and Marmaduke Johnson, an eminent lawyer, who were invited to address them. Solon Robinson, colored, presided. All the speakers gave them advice as to their new relations and advised them not to be led to suspect the friendly intentions of the white citizens of the South, by designing men who were forming them into secret societies for political purposes.

Outside of the theatre, a large crowd of negroes were standing, dissuading others from going in.

The audience inside were about half colored people. During the speech, when the question of peace between the whites and blacks was named, there were loud cries for "peace."

FOREIGN NEWS.

LISBON, April 15.

A mail steamer from Rio has arrived here.—When she left, a rumor was prevalent in Rio Janeiro, that the mediation proffered by the United States had been summarily rejected by Paraguay.

The Emperor of Brazil, in order to reinforce his army, on the river and in Paraguay, had called the National guard of the Empire into active service. This caused much discontent among the people, and provoked some opposition to a continuance of the war with Paraguay.

GRAND CHARITABLE

PRESENTATION CONCERT,

IN AID OF THE

Southern Orphan Association,

Incorporated by the Legislature of Virginia, January 30, 1867.

TO BE GIVEN AT THE

MARYLAND INSTITUTE

BALTIMORE,

APRIL 30th. 1867

THE PROFITS OF THIS CONCERT WILL BE GIVEN TO THE SOUTHERN ORPHANS' ASSOCIATION, TO THE SUBJOINED ADDRESS, FROM THE OFFICERS OF WHICH, WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC:

We, the Officers of the Southern Orphans' Association, for the maintenance and education of the destitute orphans of deceased southern soldiers and sailors, earnestly solicit the sympathy and co-operation in our

Grand Presentation Concert,

Of all who desire to see the

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

enabled to receive and care for all the needy ones who seek its shelter and protection.

Thanking our friends for their past contributions and assistance, we again appeal to them to help us in a more extensive enterprise. It is the design of this Association to erect a for the orphans of the South, both male and female, on an extensive scale, in the city of Richmond, Virginia. As an inducement to have the building located there, the Common Council of that city have guaranteed a sufficient lot of land, in an elevated and healthful location, and will increase the quantity of land if needed.

It is with a confident hope in a favorable response to this appeal to a public which has never yet failed to sustain a charitable institution, that we have entered into an arrangement with Messrs. L. T. Palmer & Co., No. 13 Holliday street, Baltimore, to organize a Grand Musical Presentation Concert for its benefit, and earnestly solicit the kindly aid and patronage of the public to ensure its success.

(Signed)
Mrs. J. L. HAMMOND, President.
Mrs. Dr. J. B. BEAN, Vice President.
Mrs. E. A. F. MEARS, Treasurer.
Mrs. Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Cor. Secretary.
Mr. J. H. SCHIERS, Recording Secretary.
Dr. A. G. KIMBERLY, Financial Secretary.
H. C. DALLAM, Esq., Counsellor.
BALTIMORE, Feb. —, 1867.

TRUSTEES.

Mrs. W. S. BOSTOCK, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. A. HAWKINS, Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. CHAS. McCURBIN, Baltimore, Md.
Mrs. Hon. JAS. LYONS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. JAS. THOMAS, Richmond, Va.
Mrs. THOS. BRANCH, Richmond, Va.

It may seem unnecessary to add a single word to the above address, but calls upon the Institution have been so numerous and pressing, and the struggle through which it is now passing to widen the circle of its charities is of such an arduous nature, that the management cannot too strongly urge upon the

HUMANE AND PATHETIC

everywhere, an active participation in this additional attempt to alleviate the sad condition of great numbers of helpless children, rendered thus by the terrible war through which we have passed. And, assuredly, whatever may have been the relative political views of ladies and gentlemen heretofore, all must agree that the children referred to, could not, by any possibility, have had any agency in bringing about their present

DEPLORABLE AND DESTITUTE CONDITION, and are suitable objects for the charity of all persons of whatever shade of political opinion. The

"HOME AND SCHOOL"

which they now more particularly seek to establish and endow, will be of incalculable benefit by providing not only food and raiment for these helpless ones, but likewise solid and thorough education, thus qualifying them for Future Usefulness to Society at Large.

In order that this appeal may be effectual in enlisting the active interest and co-operation of all classes of persons everywhere, we have concluded to issue for the Grand Presentation Musical Concert,

THE BALM OF MEMORY.

[From the Louisville Journal.]

'Tis over now—the hope that gilded life,
And with its music cheered the past long years,
Has faded all away and left us naught,
Naught save our memories and our tears,
Tears which refresh the heart, yet may not bring Back unto life the beauty of its spring.

'Tis over now—and we who wept and prayed
That night would usher in the gladsome day,
May only clasp a shadow to our hearts,
And see them bear our faded hopes away.
Thank God! we claim a memory all bright,
Star-like, undimmed, though all else is night;

A memory Time's shadow cannot dim;
A memory eternal as yon stars;
A memory that clings to every heart;
A memory oppression never mars.
This still remains, a balm of magic power,
One ray to gild the darkness of the hour.

The memory of battles fought and won;
Of weary marches borne without a sign;
Of deeds of matchless glory and renown;
Of hero "names that were not born to die."
What though we furl our flag and lay it low!
'Tis stained with martyrs' blood immortal now.

We saw our loved ones hasten to the field;
This their response to love and duty's call;
We saw them bear their colors proudly on,
And on their country's altar place their all.
We hoped and prayed—the record is on high;
They come no more, yet martyrs never die.

Our hopes were vain—our peerless flag is furled;
Our loved sleep where the sweetest sunbeams fall;
The immortal past, a glorious memory,
And hearts to hope and wait, this, this is all.
Yes, only this, a wreath of faded flowers;
Faded—they once were bright—'tis all that's our's.

[From the Metropolitan Record.]

ORIGINAL AND TESTED RECEIPTS FOR THE TABLE.

Muffins.—Mix with a pint of warm milk four well beaten eggs, a tablespoonful of butter, a teaspoonful of salt and flour, sufficient to make a thick batter; beat it smooth, add a little good yeast, and set it to rise. Bake the cakes on a griddle in buttered rings, fill them more than half full; they must be baked yellow and crisp, over a quick fire, and sent to the table quite hot according as they are done. Do not pile them on the plates, or they will lose their crispness.

Cream Cakes.—Into a quart of sour cream stir by degrees three eggs, flour to make a stiff batter, a spoontiul of salt and a spoonful of pearlash in as much vinegar as will cover it. Bake the same as muffins.

Corn Muffins.—Put into a saucepan a quart of milk with a small lump of butter and warm it till the butter is soft, but not melted; then add a handful of wheat flour, half a pint of corn meal, four eggs and a little salt. Beat all together till quite light, and bake as other muffins.

Hurry Biscuit.—Mix into a quart of flour a tablespoonful of lard and two teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar; dissolve one teaspoonful of carbonate of soda in three quarters of a pint of warm milk, and add it to the flour. Make the paste of the usual consistence of biscuit, adding a little more flour or milk if needed; roll it out half an inch thick, cut it in small cakes and bake them twenty minutes in a quick oven.

Bird's Nest Pudding.—Prepare a thin, smooth batter of flour, milk and eggs. Pare and core half a dozen tart apples, put them in a buttered dish and pour the batter over them. There must be sufficient batter to cover the apples. Bake the pudding one hour; serve it with wine sauce.

Custard Pudding.—Boil a stick of cinnamon and a quarter of a pound of white sugar in a quart of rich milk, or cream and milk mixed; when it cools add the yolks of seven eggs, well beat; let the custard simmer over a slow fire, stir it round one way till it is thick and smooth, then take it off the fire and let it stand till it is quite cold. Scald a square pudding cloth, dredge it thickly with flour, pour in the custard and tie it up very close; boil it about three quarters of an hour. When you take it up, put it in a pan to cool a little, then untie the cloth, lay your dish on the pan and turn it upside down, remove your cloth very carefully so as not to break the pudding. Grate over it a little sugar, and serve with drawn butter sweetened, and flavored with white wine.

Tapioca Pudding.—Put a teacupful of tapioca into cold water and let it remain five or six hours, or until it becomes soft; then boil it for half an hour in a pint of water, adding a little salt, sugar and essence of lemon. Pare some tart apples, take out the cores and fill the openings with brown sugar and grated lemon peel; put the apples into a buttered dish, pour the tapioca over them and bake in a moderate oven for an hour, or until the apples are well cooked. Serve the pudding cold with rich cream for sauce.

Citron Custards.—With a pint of milk stir two tablespoonfuls of sifted flour, the same quantity of sugar, the yolks of five eggs, quarter of a pound of citron cut into thin strips, and half a spoonful of nutmeg. Beat the mixture very light, put it into buttered cups, about two-thirds full, bake them in a quick oven, and turn them out upon a china dish, sifting white sugar over each one.

Wine Sauce.—Dissolve a tablespoonful of corn starch in a little cold water, and pour upon it boiling water and milk until it becomes of the thickness of clear starch; stir it well all the time, but do not put it over the fire. To a pint of the starch add a teacupful of butter, a glass of wine or brandy, and sugar and nutmeg to your taste.

DIET FOR INVALIDS.

Rice Milk.—Mix a tablespoonful of ground rice in a little cold water or milk and boil it with a pint and a half of milk. Sweeten and flavor it according to taste, with cinnamon, nutmeg or lemon-peel.

Chicken Broth.—Skin a small chicken, split it in two, put one half in a pint and a half of water with a crust of bread, a blade of mace, and a little pepper and salt; simmer it over a slow fire till it is reduced one half.

Rice Water.—Boil two ounces of rice in a quart of water until it is reduced to a pint; strain and sweeten it, and flavor with a few drops of lemon juice or essence of lemon.—This is an excellent drink in fevers.

Irish Moss Jelly.—Steep half an ounce of the moss in cold water for a few minutes; then shake the water from every sprig, and boil it in a pint of sweetened milk, until it attains the consistence of jelly; flavor with wine or lemon.

ARTIFICIAL LIMBS.—Three hundred and fifty eigth applications have been made by Virginia soldiers for artificial limbs, and upwards of three hundred granted.

DEATH FROM A BASE-BALL.—Hubert Schutter's son, an interesting boy, aged ten years, was accidently killed at Rock Hill College yesterday morning, the 11th, by a base-ball bat in the hands of a fellow student.—Chronicle.

It is now said to be very doubtful whether Surratt will be tried at the present term of the District Court, as the Attorney-General wishes the trial postponed. It is even rumored that it is questionable whether there is a sufficiency of legal evidence to sustain the accusation against Surratt.

Jack Hamilton has gone to Texas as register of bankruptcy, and but for the profit that therein is the loyalty of such a strong stomach as his, Jack Hamilton would have been the first man in Texas he would have to register.—World.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it, the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 23, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district: North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,
President of the Senate pro tem.

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bunnties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registsrrtion will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any state, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United states, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God," which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First-class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required.—In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages.—This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States.—Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.
